

Contents

Foreword	1
How to use this book	3
Introduction	5
1 Why Innovate?	11
1.1 Innovation
1.2 What's the point of innovation?
1.3 Definitions
1.4 Some received ideas in light of our experience
1.5 Innovation and Market
1.6 Innovation and High Tech
1.7 The evolution of business management and its tools
2 The Innovation Approach within a company	41
2.1 Structuring the innovation process
2.2 The process of an innovation project
2.3 Indicators
2.4 The creative company
3. Setting up your own "Innovative Approach"	67
3.1 Brakes on innovation
3.2 Personalising the method in the company
3.3 Intellectual Property
3.4 Ensure high-performance tracking
4 Creativity at the service of Innovation	87
4.1 The CPS
4.2 The IDEAR method
4.3 Approach and problem analysis
4.4 Goal-setting
4.5 Creative ideas
4.6 Potential solutions and their selection
4.7 Action plan

4.8	The IDEAR creativity method at a glance
4.9	The use of creativity tools at a glance
4.10	Managing the development phase
5	Running innovation projects in a team with a creative approach	119
5.1	Defining and starting the project
5.2	The role of the Sponsor or of the Steering Committee
5.3	The activity of the Project Leader (or Team Leader)
5.4	The activity of the in-house Creativity Facilitators
5.5	The Creativity Team
5.6	The experts
5.7	Intellectual Property
5.8	Analysis of what already exists (analysis prior to the creativity phase)
5.9	The working ambiance during sessions
5.10	Choosing creative tools for idea production
5.11	Selecting the ideas
5.12	Implementing the ideas: development and realization
5.13	Multinational projects
5.14	Experience feedback
5.15	Training courses
5.16	Application in small-and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs)
6	Integrating the other innovation users and drivers in the "Innovation Approach"	159
6.1	Innovation at the service of company mergers
6.2	Innovation and knowledge bases
6.3	Innovation and Continuous Improvement (Total Quality)
7	Open Innovation and Creativity	175
7.1	A new organization
7.2	Open Innovation and Intellectual Property
7.3	Open Innovation and Creative Initiatives
	Bibliographical references	191